II. Activities

The TLRC works to provide resources, conversation spaces, and opportunities for faculty to address and adapt to the everchanging teaching environment. The TLRC also worked to create events in agreement with the resolution in support of the Black Lives Matter movement in dedicating the 2020-2021 academic year to hosting events in exploring topics of (in)equality, (in)justice, and movements for social change.

During the remote 2020-2021 academic year, the TLRC hosted a New Faculty Orientation focused on teaching-issues for 11 new full-time faculty, and hosted four roundtable discussions. The TLRC co-sponsored the ARPT's and UUP's annual "Getting to Tenure and Beyond" workshop. Furthermore, the TLRC co-sponsored alongside CETL, Parity, and the School of Arts and Sciences a workshop on "Integrating Decolonialism and Anti-Racism: Humanizing the Higher Education Classroom." Finally, the TLRC sponsored the senate resolution and supported of the creation of the Innovation Lab. In addition to these activities (also listed below), the TLRC held a total of six business meetings.

The committee continued to serve in an advisory capacity to the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL) in its third full year of activity and represented faculty teaching needs and requirements on the Distance Learning Taskforce.

Please note that members of the TLRC rely heavily on the expertise and participation of our colleagues to develop successful initiatives, and always welcome suggestions/volunteers for presenters.
