

Resolution regarding Rational Tuition Policy

WHEREAS:

Access to public higher education has long been a foundation of a democratic society; and

WHEREAS:

The state of New York has a fiduciary and constitutional responsibility to support public higher education; and

WHEREAS:

In the current economic climate citizens need to have the ability to plan long-term for the costs of higher education; and

WHEREAS:

The costs of delivering quality education programs increase due to the impact of inflation on fixed costs and due to new program creation

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

That the College Senate of SUNY Fredonia endorses the establishment of a rational tuition plan for the State University of New York.

Resolution passed on November 12, 2001 by SUNY Fredonia College Senate.
