A Quick Guide to Robert's Rules of Order

Points (Incidental Motions)

Points are motions that refer to parliamentary process or other incidental issues. They must always be addressed immediately by the president.

- Point of Clarification—used to clear up confusion, to ask to reword a motion, to ask a question about the motion or to inquire as to the correct motion.
- Point of Information—used to ask a question of the speaker holding the floor during debate.
- Point of Order—used to question a process, improper decorum, or to raise an issue regarding an infraction of the rules. Must be raised immediately after the error is made.

10 Basic Rules for RRO

- 1. The rights of the organization supersede the rights of individual members.
- 2. All members are equal and their rights are equal.
